

Bright Futures

get yours!

16-18 June 2010

to be held at Kingston University London

This highly successful programme, for enterprising students, has been running for five years. It is free, but limited to the first sixty who enrol (with a refundable booking deposit). An intensive, fun and challenging three-day programme using speakers, team games and business simulations. Come along and:

- develop your enterprising spirit
- communicate more effectively
- get support for your ideas
- hear from inspiring entrepreneurs
- add value to your personal pitch and CV
- build your network and job potential

"An outstanding experience for me" Atta Behravanfar, an engineering student, Kingston University

"Bright Futures was a big confidence builder" Jenny Harmer, an english student, Royal Holloway

Applications close Friday 28 May 2010. Apply now:
www.westfocus.org.uk/entrepreneurship

SS(10.071)JL

The programme is open and free to students from WestFocus universities:
Brunel, Kingston, Royal Holloway, Roehampton, St. George's, Thames Valley and Westminster.